SPOTLIGHT ON:

RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT AND DISSEMINATION

Annual Report 2009-2010

Research development and dissemination

Our Progress

CASLT has defined a clear sense of purpose and vision, key strategic directions, and areas of priority. CASLT has developed processes to attain meaningful results in five major strategic areas in order to solidify its leadership capacity in support of effective second and additional language teaching and learning in Canada:

- Member support and services
- Research development and dissemination
- Networking and partnerships
- Public awareness, media, and government relations
- Organizational capacity

Research Development and Dissemination

Our Professional Development (PD) Sessions

A CASLT Chez Vous (CCV) is a one-day PD session centered on a theme or based on the expertise of a selected presenter. Seven regional CCVs were completed in 2009-10:

1. CCV Winnipeg, April 14th 2009, on Literacy, Assessment/ Working with the CEFR and ELP, given by Miles Turnbull, John Erskine, Carlos Soler Montes, Thomas Chaurin, and Caterina Sotiriadis
2. CCV Edmonton, April 27th 2009, on Oral Communication/ Literacy Strategies and Assessment, given by Bev Anderson
3. CCV Fredericton, April 30th-May 1st 2009, focusing on Culture Francophone/Celebrating Languages, given by André Charlebois
4. CCV Halifax, May 8th 2009, on support for English as a second language teachers, given by Tara Shahparaki and Stéphane Lacroix
5. CCV St John's, May 29th 2009, on Motivation/Affect, given by Jim Howden
6. CCV Shippagan, July 13th 2009, on Franco culture, given by Louisel Pelletier-Robichaud
7. CCV Regina and Saskatoon, February 22nd-23rd 2010, on Literacy in L2, given by Roy Lyster

Our National Conferences

In 2009, a new brand was launched for the biennial CASLT national conference for second language educators, Languages Without Borders, held May 21-23, in Edmonton, AB. This conference was co-hosted by CASLT and the Institute for Innovation in Second Language Education at Edmonton Public Schools. We welcomed over 600 conference delegates from across Canada and abroad, providing exciting PD and networking opportunities for second language educators to connect with colleagues, and pre-conference school visits to various Edmonton Public Schools' language programs.

Top-notch keynote speakers and guest presenters included: Milton Bennett, Helena Curtain, Jim Cummins, David Little, and S.N. Greymorning. Over 75 workshop presenters from Canada, USA, Ireland, China, Japan, Spain, Germany, and France offered sessions.

Unique cultural events and entertainment included an American Sign Language school choir, a Chinese school dragon dance, local Edmonton Ukrainian dancers, a Spanish guitarist, an electro-pop German entertainer, the Cree Yellow Ribbon Dancers, as well as the viewing of the French film, Raconte-moi ta langue. Over 85 exhibitors at the conference and 38 resource information sessions were offered in the Exhibits Hall by publishers and second language organizations.

"The Languages Without Borders conference was the best language conference I've ever attended – stimulating sessions on diverse topics, excellent speakers, great display of resources, fun mini-sessions... I learned a lot and I had a great time."

— W.N., Consultant, Alberta

Our Projects

a. FSL and ESL Teacher and Program Support

- Distributed to members: Réflexions, print magazine (May 2009, October 2009, and February 2010), The CASLT Language Teacher calendar (December 2009), and Semaine de la langue française PDF resource (March 2010).
- Increased access to quality web-based resources on our website and in our monthly online newsletters, including the posting of new video clips and podcasts.
- Supported a research-based PD colloquium hosted by CCERBAL, University of Ottawa, entitled Language Immersion as Formal and Informal Learning: New Perspectives for Research and Public Policy, held April 30-May 1, 2009, with invited speakers Miles Turnbull and Michael Salvatori, presenting The European Common Framework and Language Portfolio: One Possible Pathway to Support Pre-service and In-service Teachers' Language Development.
- Supported The Canadian Association of Applied Linguistics' (CAAL) Special Symposium on Second Language Teacher Education: Assessment, Achievement, and Advancement in Canada's Official Languages, May 29, 2009. CASLT Board member Michael Salvatori co-chaired the event with Paula Kristmanson. CASLT produced and posted a series of video clips with fact sheets from this event.
- In partnership with OLBI, delivered a ten-day PD opportunity for the second time: Summer University for FSL teachers, University of Ottawa, July 2009.
- Released the research report, Profile and Pathways – Supports for Developing FSL Teachers' Pedagogical, Linguistic, and Cultural Competencies, Michael Salvatori and Alina MacFarlane, principal investigators, October 2009.
- Conducted a national, online survey of English as a second language (ESL) teachers' perspectives, January 11-February 19, 2010, lead by Professor Leif French, l'Université du Québec à Chicoutimi.

- Mentoring/Coaching survey completed in fall 2009 and CASLT hosted a two-day session on Developing models of mentoring/coaching programs designed for L2 teachers, facilitated by Joanne Robinson, held in Ottawa, Ontario, February 3-4, 2010. The information collected is being incorporated into a new teacher support project.
- A committee of administrators, guidance counsellors, and teacher federations that support second language programs was formed and the first meeting took place on January 18, 2010. The committee outlined a series of six folios entitled Leadership for Successful FSL Programs on specific topics to help principals support FSL teachers and their programs. A partnership with CAIT has been established to develop and distribute the folios.

b. Language Associations and Collaborative Supports (LACS) with the European Centre for Modern Languages (ECML), Graz, Austria

- Participation on a multinational and multilingual (French, German, and English) project committee with the goals of facilitating greater collaboration between language association networks and disseminating ECML publications.
- Articles on Canadian participation in LACS as well as in other ECML research project teams have been published in Réflexions, and an ECML news section has been added to the monthly newsletters.

c. International Languages Teacher and Program Support

- Developing a student focused oral-language multilingual game, Speakarama, for distribution in September 2010.
- Compilation of past calendar language expressions for creation of a teacher support resource; to be developed in fall of 2010 and ready for publication in winter of 2011.
