

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CASLT'S AGM AND NETWORKING DAY

Ottawa - September 27, 2018 – Members of the Canadian Association of Second Language Teachers (CASLT) and its stakeholders are meeting in Gatineau, Que. this Friday, September 28, 2018 for this year's Annual General Meeting and Networking Day.

The annual event brings together second language education leaders from across Canada to share information and ideas on current practices and research in second language education. In particular, attendees will learn about some of CASLT's pedagogical resources for second language teachers and innovations in indigenous language education.

This year's Networking Day will also be an opportunity for second language educators to delve into the government of Canada's new Action Plan for Official Languages – 2018 – 2013; to discuss its impact on the field of second language education and to explore opportunities to support the growth of bilingualism in Canada.

This event is a cherished networking opportunity for CASLT and its partner organizations. CASLT believes in working in partnership with members and stakeholders to advance the teaching and learning of languages. To that end, CASLT will sign a partnership agreement with the Ontario Modern Languages Teachers' Association (OMLTA).
